

Student-Athlete Scholarship
Academic Guidelines Addendum
&
Release

Congratulations upon receiving athletic aid to attend Cochise College and further your athletic career. As a student-athlete at Cochise College you are representing the institution, a team and your family. Cochise College and the Athletic Department expect you to conduct yourself with the highest decorum at all times.

It must be plainly understood that your athletic scholarship award is a one year award that can be revoked for the following reasons:

- Failure to maintain a 2.0 grade average each semester.
- Accumulation of units equal to 12 units times the number of full-time semesters attended may be used for eligibility only. Failure to pass 12 units each semester will result in athletic aid being revoked.
- Quitting a team of your own volition.
- Dismissal from a team due to a violation(s) of Cochise College Social Standards or violation of Federal, State or Local laws.
- Dismissal from a team for violation(s) of team rules or guidelines.

Revocation of athletic aid resulting from violation(s) of College Social Standards, Federal, State or Local law can only result after a formal hearing by the College designated student hearing officer. Revocation due to violation(s) of team rules or guidelines will result in a meeting between the Athletic Director, appropriate Head Coach and the student-athlete outlining and discussing the concerns.

If a Student-Athlete's scholarship aid is revoked the College will remove all athletic aid from that point forward and the Athlete will become responsible at that point in time for the remainder of all costs associated with further attendance at Cochise College.
